DAY 2- October 19th

- Breakfast at the hotel

This first full day of the tour will be devoted to an overview of Baku. Among the places to be visited are the Martyrs Lane, the National Flag Square, the Heydar Aliyev Center and the Seaside Park. Other stops can be made at the Carpet Museum (if there is sufficient interest) and the area known as Little Venice, an area of man-made water channels built in the 1960s.

In the evening there will be a welcome dinner, to be held at the exotic caravanserai restaurant inside the walls of the old city. The sturgeon steak is highly recommended and caviar is available.

DAY 3- October 20th

- Breakfast in the hotel
- A walking tour in the Old Town
- Excursion to the Apsheron Peninsula
- A visit to the Archaeological and Ethnographic Museum Complex Gala
- A visit to Yanar Dag or "burning mountain" is one of the most amazing natural attractions of the Apsheron Peninsula. It is a natural gas fire that burns continuously on a mountainside.
- Return to Baku for overnight stay.

Icheri Sheher "Old Town" or "Inner City" is the heart of Baku, surrounded by ancient castle walls. The famous Maiden Tower is located in the Old town. Inside the old city are dozens of historical monuments - Market Square, mosques, caravanserais, baths, houses and Shirvanshah Palace Complex - a pearl of Azerbaijani architecture. The mansions of wealthy oil merchants can also be seen there.

The palace complex was built in the period from the XIII to XVI centuries. The most magnificent and most mysterious monument of Baku is Giz Galasi - Maiden Tower, rising in the south-eastern part of the fortress of Icheri Sheher. In 1964 the Maiden Tower became a museum, and since 2000 has been included in the UNESCO World heritage list.

Temple Ateshgah

Atashgah Fire Temple - Is located 30 km from the center of Baku, on the outskirts of the village of Surakhani. This area is known for such unique natural phenomena as burning natural gas outlets bursting outward and light up in contact with oxygen. The modern form of the temple was built in the XVII-XVIII centuries. However, the history of the Temple Ateshgah is much older. Since ancient times this territory was a sanctuary of the Zoroastrians who were fire-worshippers. They gave the inextinguishable fire a mystical significance and came here to worship the shrine.

DAY 4- October 21st

- Breakfast in the hotel.
- A tour of Quba.
- Return back to Baku for overnight stay.

Quba is one of the largest cities in Azerbaijan and is located 170 km to the north of Baku on picturesque hillsides. In the past it was the capital of the Quba khanate which was founded in the mid 18th century. Architectural landmarks include the Dzhuma Mosque, the Sakina-Khanum Mosque, Zoroastrian Temple in Khinalug village, the octagonal mausoleum in Agbil village (16th century), Tengialtyn fortress. The symbols of Quba are apple orchards and beautiful Quba carpets which are popular far outside Azerbaijan.

DAY 5- October 22nd

- Breakfast in the hotel
- Departure from the hotel to Qabala.

Qabala is in a mountainous region in the north of the country, up near the Russian region of Dagestan.
